How to pursue collective approaches for durable solutions in Somalia?

Steps to increasing coherence between resilience, durable solutions and Somali-led processes

Wednesday 6th December - 08.30-2pm

MEETING OBJECTIVES

1. Generate greater awareness of linkages between resilience and durable solutions, and support for continued collaborative working
2. Jointly identify practical steps to aligning resilience-building and durable solutions efforts
3. Identify opportunities and approaches to supporting Somali-led durable solutions

EXPECTED OUTCOMES

- Approaches and ideas identified for ensuring more coherence between resilience and durable solutions efforts, and for working towards Somali-led approaches
- Collective commitments identified to make progress on these agendas
- A commitment to continue working together towards collective approaches and joint accountability on durable solutions, resilience and Somali-led approaches

PROGRAMME

08.00 – 8.30	Arrival and coffee
8.30 – 8.45	Welcome and introductions
9.00 – 9.30	Moving towards greater coherence: setting the scene Durable solutions in Somalia: key concepts and developments Aude Galli, ReDSS What does resilience mean for durable solutions and vice versa in Somalia? Peter Hailey, Centre for Humanitarian Change Somali-led durable solutions and resilience efforts Nasra Ali Ismail, Somalia NGO Consortium Zahra Mohamed, Somali Women Development Centre
9.30 – 10.00	Moving towards greater coherence: plenary discussion
10.00 –11.45	Working towards greater coherence: break-out groups 4 break-out groups develop collective strategies from the point of view of different actors, which establish coherence between resilience, durable solutions and Somali-led approaches
11.45 – 12.30	Working Lunch
12.30 – 13.00	Implications of greater coherence between resilience, durable solutions and Somali-led approaches
13.00 – 14.00	Next steps and commitments