Checklist on key information to collect.

Inspired by and adapted from the USWG Settlement Approach Guidance Note[1]

Data on Places/ the supply side
Assessments	Secondary data review	Key Informant Interviews	Household survey	Focus Group Discussion
Location, capacities and accessibility for DACs of services and infrastructures in the targeted area: water, sewage, electricity supply, healthcare, education, police and security, roads, bridges etc. Actors responsible for each if these services and infrastructures.
Identification and mapping of already existing humanitarian, peace building and development programmes delivered in the area by national and international actors
Identify local municipal and district services catchment area
Identify existing coordination mechanisms and relationships between actors
Data on the Displacement Affected Communities: the demand side

[1] Settlement Approach Guidance Note, The Urban Settlement Working Group, Dec. 2020

Collect basic statistics about the population and their location disaggregated by age and sex.
Identify the main needs of the DACs in the area with comparison between the different categories of populations
Identify obstacles faced by DACs to access rights and services with comparison between the different categories of populations
Identify which areas/services/infrastructures are considered accessible/inaccessible, safe/unsafe, adequate/inadequate by DACsetc.
Identify how people express their needs, aspirations and potential solutions and how they receive information about their rights and the services available
Identify how people make their voices heard and how problems and issues are delt with by the DAC
Identify potential tension or conflicts among DAC
Identify how information spreads and how people interact with each other.				